Item 2. Educational and Business Experience

Jennifer Garrett, CFA®

Jennifer is Senior Portfolio Manager with Ellis Investment Partners LLC. Jennifer has over 25 years of investment experience. She develops investment policy, including asset allocation strategies for high net worth individuals and institutions. She works closely with clients, balancing investment risk with performance in the determination of the proper asset mix. Prior to her association with Ellis, Jennifer served as Senior Portfolio Manager at Capital Management Services, Inc. from 2006 until March, 2013. She was a member of the Investment Policy Committee which developed investment policy and target asset allocations for the firm. Prior to this, she spent 17 years at Conserve Capital and its predecessors as Partner and Senior Portfolio Manager. In addition, she directed fixed income investments for the firm, managing over $300 million in bonds and other fixed income securities.

In 1994, Jennifer earned the Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) designation. To earn the CFA® designation, a candidate must successfully complete a graduate-level curriculum specifically focused on investment knowledge. Candidates must also meet professional conduct requirements and successfully pass three sequential, comprehensive examinations. Finally, candidates must accumulate at least four years' work experience in an investment field. Jennifer graduated Drew University in 1983 with a BA in Economics and a minor in French. She serves on the boards of two non-profit organizations.

Jennifer and her husband Anthony have been married for over 20 years. They have twin sons.
